

Traigh Lodges, Arisaig

Scottish Tourist Board 2 and 3 stars

The Holiday Lodges and flat (apartment) of Traigh (pronounced Try) are in a delightful, unspoilt area of the West Highlands near Arisaig on the road to Mallaig and the ferry to the romantic Isle of Skye.

All properties are within a short walk of the magnificent white sandy beaches for which the region is renowned - including Camusdarach Beach, where Local Hero was filmed.

The Lodges are set among Scots pines, and are attractive A-frame Scandinavian timber chalets. Each sleeps 4 people in simple, but stylish comfort and both are tastefully appointed and well-furnished.

Both have an entrance lobby, with bathroom adjacent - thus allowing children to change on entry to the lodge; passing by the galley-kitchen and leading to the spacious living room with dining area.

There are 2 bedrooms, one with double bed and good drawer/wardrobe space; the other upstairs - approached by an angled ladder - has twin beds and is great fun for children!

There are patio doors to the verandah, which looks out over the Sound of Sleat - ideal for a quiet reflective evening. Full double-glazing and quality insulation, coupled with efficient electric heating, will ensure warmth and comfort for all guests in all seasons.

Tigh-na-Bruaich ('House on the bank' in Gaelic) offers a self-contained flat (apartment), on the upper floor of a farmhouse, with private external entrance. The flat offers sturdy, comfortable accommodation and has full central heating.

The flat has 2 bedrooms - one double and one triple, both with good storage - which can sleep up to 5 persons. There is a bathroom with shower and bath. The kitchen is well equipped and includes a microwave cooker, oven and hob cooker, fridge, dishwasher and an automatic clothes washer and dryer.

There is a spacious living room with integral dining area, well furnished and well decorated - this room is enhanced by a wide balcony overlooking the islands of Eigg, Rum and Skye.

All properties are well decorated and furnished, equipped with colour TV, crockery, cutlery, cooking utensils, with bedrooms having continental quilts (bed linen and towels are provided). The properties are all-electric on the economic 'Total-Control' system.

Pets are welcome, at a small charge of £10/week, but must be kept under strict control as Traigh is a working stock farm. The nearest shop is 3 miles from Traigh, and a car is advisable not only for shopping but to enable one to get out and about and see more of this beautiful locality. There is unlimited space for walking, climbing and exploring - glorious countryside with an abundant variety of wild flora and fauna. A wide range of activities is available in the area; with sailing, rowing and canoeing as well as sea and loch fishing easily arranged. The local golf course is small but enjoyable!
